“Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have, for such sacrifices are pleasing to God.” Hebrews 13:16

At the end of Hebrews, there are several final instructions given to believers. Several of them center around loving and caring for one another as brothers and sisters. Part of following Christ means living according to His example. During His ministry, Jesus provided for the practical needs of people including offering them food and healing the sick. God sees when you give and help others and knows the attitude of your heart in those moments. God is more concerned with your motives than with the size of your gift. Jesus gave His life to pay for our sins. We follow in His example of self-sacrifice when we help others and when we give generously. How is God calling you to be generous?
